Often the first casualties of job loss is a person'e emotional and spiritual well being. Mr. Caro's new book provides practical and useful readings, inspirations and insights to help anyone who is between jobs maintain the hope and confidence that is needed to succeed in todays highly competitive job market.

There are many books written detailing the job search process covering everything from skills assessments and resume writing to interviewing and salary negotiations, but there is nothing available for the job seeker looking for something to sustain themselves mentally and spiritually. Being unable to sustain themselves mentally and spiritually many job seekers soon grow weary of the daunting job search journey and simply quit looking before they reach their goal. The Job Seekers Faithful Guide targets everybody involved in a career transition regardless whether they are unemployed, underemployed, seeking a new opportunity or launching a new business on their own. In fact, anyone in career transition is a job seeker. One of the most difficult tasks a job seeker faces is how to sustain the mental and spiritual strength to make it through the complete journey. When a job seekers mental and spiritual strength wanes the chances for success in the job search are drastically reduced, and finally the job seeker simply abandons the job search. The Job Seekers Faithful Guide provides a resource for anybody in career transition regardless of where they are along their job search journey. The Job Seekers Faithful Guide is faith-based, but it is meant to be non-denominational. In fact, the scripture references provide inspirational meaning for anybody of any faith as they work their way through the job search process and journey. The Job Seekers Faithful Guide is organized as a series of sixty-six (66) Reflections (Chapters). The chapters are arranged in the order the individual Reflections were originally presented to members of the In Between Jobs Support Group, which an outreach ministry of the St. Paul Roman Catholic Church located in Tampa, FL. The individual Reflections can be read and studied in any order without detracting from the value of the full content of the book. The book includes three (3) indexes at the end of the book as follows: Topic Index - Lists job search related topics included in the book; and, Scripture Index - Lists all scripture references included in the book; Secular Reference Index - Lists all secular references mentioned in the book. Each Reflection in the book includes a scripture reference followed by an updated application of the scriptural message using secular references, and finally a specific connection between the scripture and secular references as applied to the job search journey. Finally, Reflections include a set of self-discovery questions and a prayer.
