Just returned from my first trip to Beijing. I really like this map. Durable because it is laminated. Functional because it shows both English and Chinese names. When taking a taxi, just point to the spot you want to go and the Driver reads the Chinese and takes you there.

Purchased this map before going to Beijing and kept it with us during our entire trip. Although we used tour guides most days, it was nice to have, especially the subway map, when walking around by ourselves.
