Aubrey Malone : Literary Trivia: Over 300 Curious Lists for Bookworms before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Literary Trivia: Over 300 Curious Lists for Bookworms:

Everything anyone could possibly wonder about famous books and writers is in this collection of more than 300 lists: authors who wrote standing up, famous last words, writers who couldn't spell, unusual work habits, sexual peccadilloes, unintended double entendres in the classics, bad reviews of future classics, and even writers who were spies. Find out about the weird and wonderful behavior of all these wordsmiths such as the poet who, while at Trinity College, Cambridge, kept a bear in his rooms because there was a rule against keeping dogs or cats; or the poet who tied a cat to a kite during a thunderstorm in the hope of seeing it electrocuted. The fascinating facts found within will inspire bibliophiles to reread some of those classics!

"Many little-known literary facts... can be found in this book of bizarre literary lists" - The Sunday Telegraph
