Brian L. Burns : Mastering the Art of Interviewing: A Guide to Successful Interviewing before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Mastering the Art of Interviewing: A Guide to Successful Interviewing:

Interviews can be challenging, especially if you don't know what to expect. What should I wear? What questions am I going to be asked? What type of salary should I request? How am I going to explain not working for the last 2 years? These are frequently asked questions. Knowing the answers to these and several more frequently asked questions will give you a competitive advantage over others who enter in an interview without this knowledge. The interview process starts long before you walk through the door to greet the interviewer. Mastering The Art Of Interviewing: A Guide To Successful Interviewing will take you step by step to show you what is required for a successful interview. Several employers and human relations experts have expressed what they are looking for in a candidate to hire. I have taken that information and applied it to my own life and I was successful. That same information is transferred to this guide. Understanding what employers want will not only help you be better prepared for the interview but it will also give you the confidence to wow the interviewer. After reading this guide, you will; ~Understand the do's and don'ts of interviewing. ~What questions are going to be asked. ~What questions you should ask. ~How to prepare for the interview in advance. The job market is very competitive. Having the right qualifications is only part of landing that job. Having a successful interview will help seal the deal. After reading this guide you will have the tools for a successful interview and give you a competitive advantage over other candidates. NOW GO GET THAT JOB!!

About the AuthorAfter serving in the United States Military for 12 years and the Department of Corrections for 8 1/2 years I found myself laid off. The job hunt was on. I went on several dozen job interviews. Thinking that the interviews went well, I received the same result. "Thank you Mr. Burns for coming in. We have several other applicants that we must interview." Basically, this meant, don't call us, we'll call you. I wondered what I was missing. What were the interviewers looking for? I went on a quest to find out what is required to land that job. After 2 long years of meticulous research, I found the key to have a successful interview. I wrote this guide to help not only the new job seeker but the seasoned veteran that is looking to change career paths. Born and raised in Chicago, Illinois, I knew there was something great out in the world for me to do. After traveling around the world, I attended Harold Washington College and Chicago State University where I received my Associates of Arts Degree and Bachelors of Science Degree. I have four outgoing children. This gives me a chance to combine two of my passions, writing and helping people.
