A great source for the "abstract expressionist" and a great inspiration that is needed to an artist to paint!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy CustomerVery pleased

This brand new volume presents, in stunning color, over seventy postwar artworks from the collection of the Smithsonian American Art Museum, and looks at the rise to prominence of New York as the center of the modern art scene in the two decades following World War II.

About the AuthorVirginia M. Mecklenburg is senior curator, painting and sculpture, Smithsonian American Art Museum. She is co-author of Edward Hopper: The Watercolors(1999), and co-author of Metropolitan Lives: The

Ashcan Artists and their New York(1996)
